WINTER MEETING AT THE MEXICAN TRACK LAUNCHED WITH MUCH ECLAT.

Notables Present Include Prominent Citizens of United States and Mexico-Taboo, Harrigan and Jack Atkin Seen in Thrilling Struggle.

El Paso, Tex., November 24.—Faultless weather d an attractive program today drew to the beautical course of the Juarez Jockey Club an attendance ich as has seldom been seen on a race course in the west. By the time the bugle called the starters the post for the first race fully 8,000 persons tronged the spacious stand, lawns, paddocks and etting ring.

Speculation was brisk throughout the afternoon, no play being sufficient to give nine layers in the play being sufficient to give nine layers in the gring, as well as two in the field, all they wanted gring.

There were many notables present from both sides f the international boundary. Besides a number of rell-known Americans there was quite a distinuished gathering of representative Mexicans. The feature race, the La Independencia Handicap, as marked by the absence of Glorio and Helmet. The former pulled up lame after a work-out this norming and Helmet did not arrive at the track in time to start.

The race was contested by only three horses, Jack morning and Heiniet did not arrive at the track in time to start.

The race was contested by only three horses, Jack Atkin, Harrigan and Taboo, but it was highly spectacular, the trio fighting it out head and head through the stretch. Taboo proved gamest and won by half a length, while Harrigan beat Jack Atkin a neck for second money. The thrilling features of the contest aroused the onlookers to a high pitch of entinusiasm and excitement and the warmest of appliause greeted the winner.

The track does not appear to be as fast as it was last spring, the time recorded today being comparativety, slow.

PENSACOLA MEETING OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY.

Interest Manifested by Townsfolk That Augurs Well for Future of the Sport

Pensacola, Fla., November 24.—The thirty-days race meeting scheduled for this city began today under favorable auspices and with excellent promise for the future. About 2,000 persons were on hand to witness the sport and took a keen interest in the racing. Speculation was light, but satisfactory to the ring, as race-goers in this locality are novices in betting. The grounds and grandstand presented a crude appearance, due to the lack of a sufficient working force to make the appointments more presentable. The track proper was also in poor condition and caused many of the better horses to be absentees from the racing. Manager Strode has promised to look after these details in person and conditions are expected to improve.

There was plenty of action in all the races with the exception of the one won by Autumn Rose. She won in a common canter, meeting little or no opposition. She had been confidently supported. Alencon and T. H. McBride were the only outsiders to score. Both hit the books considerably, as they developed strong backing at post time.

The officials are determined to keep the racing here clean and free from scandal. They have served warning that offenders wil be dealt with drastically. Starter Murray suspended jockeys J. Bauer and J. Howard for two days each.

SOMETHING OF EARLY BOOKMAKING.

New York. November 24.—In Canada and in various states of the Union there is every disposition to eliminate the professional bookmaker. Legislation is being constantly almed at him and the era of the pari-mutuel as a means of speculation seems at hand.

lation is being constantly aimed at him and the era of the pari-mutuel as a means of speculation seems at hand.

There can be seen almost every day in the Astor House rotunda two well-preserved men who did much in the past to make bookmaking a popular vehicle of speculation on races in this country, says the Sun. These men, Harry Stedeker and Ridge Levein, were asked recently to tell something about the early days of bookmaking in America.

"You couldn't have met anybody who knows more about it," answered Stedeker. "In the year 1872 the late Joe Gleason and I were selling theater tickets in front of the old Olympic Theater on Broadway, where George L. Fox was playing in Humpty Dumpty." Two years after that both of us were dead broke, and I suggested to Gleason that it might be a good idea to locate in some billiard room and lay odds on the races then being run at soatatoga, Monasouth Park. Pimlico and in the west. We found a place at 384 Third avenue and began to do a little business.

"A year or two later we went up to Jerome Park, and I was one of nine men parading up and down and carrying bags over our shoulders, offering odds a la Newmarket. Among the nine were the late Modoe Fox, S. Howland Robbins, John McDougall, John Hackett, backed by Ridge Levein, A. H. Cridge and Henry Stanford, The last-named was an Englishman with a long gray beard, who was induced by Pierre Lorillard to come over here and educate the heart of the making. Howland Robbins also had Mr. Lorillard's mass often the case in those days in England, when was often the case in those days in England, when was often the case in those days in England, when was often the case in those days in England, when was often the case in those days in England, when was often the case in those days in England, when was often the case in those days in England, when was often the case in those days in England, when was often the case in those days in England, when was often the case in those days in England, when was often the case in those days in England,

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING HORSES

Bonnie Kelso and Guy Fisher have displaced Donau and Sir John Johnson in the list of the thirty leading American money-winning horses for 1910 since its last publication. The half dozen horses that are at the head of the list have gone into retirement for the season and it is highly probable further changes in the list during the year will be confined to the minor positions. The present standing of the thirty leaders, including the racing of 1910 up to yesterday, is as follows:

the west. It was the joint property of Cheppu and Milton Young, and was trained by Brown Dick, a negro horseman, who developed among others the famous Ben Brush.

In 1877 Stedeker and a friend instituted the combination form of betting in the books, and at Saratoga they made it a custom to lay $1,000 to $10 that no one could name the five winners which in those days composed the program. They won $32,000 that season, and had many imitators. Ten years later P. J. Dwyer, as president of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, killed all combination betting at his track, because of a scandal involving the gigantic horse, Gleaner, and this was the final blow which practically knocked out this alluring form of speculation. If left to pure chance alone combination betting would always be popular, but it led to so many mean attempts on the part of small operators to "correct fortune" that it was very justly eliminated. The least offensive form of "correcting fortune" was by paying some trainer to scratch a horse which looked to be an absolutely sure winner of the last race, which usually meant losses of thousands for the layers.

was by paying some trainer to scratch a horse which looked to be an absolutely sure winner of the last race, which usually meant losses of thousands for the layers.

Present-day race-goers easily recall a period when Barclay and Fulton streets were honeycombed with places where horses could be backed to win large sums. It was not at all difficult to do business in these rooms. In the neighborhood of Broadway and Twenty-eighth street, too, were the large poolrooms of Tommy Johnson and Bill Johnson, A. H. Cridge, Kelly & Bliss and William Lovell. In these rooms on the night before a race could be seen hundreds of eager men anxious to make wagers, and this helped to increase interest in the contests at the track the next day.

Of all men most responsible for the introduction of bookmaking into America Charles Reed stands pre-eminent. Nearly thirty years ago he induced George Haughton was an up-to-date bookmaker and Reed, having large capital, backed him. The duel between Reed and Haughton on the one hand and "Plunger" Walton on the other one day at Sheepshead Bay is recalled by old race-goers.

It was in 1882 when Giroffe beat Barrett and Bootjack. Walton, well known at that time as a professional backer, and particularly as a backer of horses trained by Eph Snedeker and ridden by Billy Donohue, made two wagers of $10.000 each on Giroffe, the odds being 6 to 5. Reed and Haughton wer depending on Barrett to win for them. Walton wer flush with his enormous winnings of the year before in England on Iroquois and Foxhall, and his long career of success made him unpopular with prominent layers. It culminated in his trip to England in 1883 with Giroffe, which wound up disastrously.

RACING GOSSIP FROM THE EAST.

New York, November 24.—Five Nursery-bred year-lings, broken and tried by trainer Thomas Welsh for August Belmont, were turned over to trainer Louis Feustel last week and are now located at Belmont Park. They have been named and are as follows:

Vestibule, b. c. by Rock Sand—Lady Violet,

Lady Rayon.

This division of the Belmont juvenile string was sent to the Welsh barn during the Saratoga meeting and it was at the Springs that they were tried. It was these trials, together with their striking appearance, that caused trainer Welsh to regard his hand as a particularly strong one for the coming season. They are well engaged in the stakes already closed and it is safe to assume Mr. Belmont will enter them liberally for events that close later on. The Tiptoe colt and the filly out of Whitehorn are said to have speed galore. The dam of the former was a high-class stake winner. Lady Violet's colt, Vestibule, is a superb individual. He is the type of the horse of quality and it would be no surprise to find him a top-notcher when prepared for the races.

To and him a top-notation of 1911, one of the races.

The Lawrence Realization of 1911, one of the richest and most popular stakes run over the course of the Coney Island Jockey Club, closed November 15 with 140 entries. This is a remarkably good showing, it being up to the standard of former years.

Jerome Welsh, an assistant starter on the New York tracks, is spending the winter in Gweat Britain. Philip J. Dwyer, who went to Carlsbad in the carly autumn, is reported to be in good health, Mr. Dwyer will return to this country before Christmas. Charles Casey, who is training a stable of horses for Clarence W. Nichols on the Pacific coast, has a good-looking yearling colt by Rock Sand—Lucy Cross. Mr. Nichols, who purchased the colt at Saratoga, has named him Cracker Box.

Thomas J. Healey has arrived at Belmont Park with six horses that he raced at Norfolk. The lot includes Nightfall, Cuttyhunk, Onager. Amalfi, Agnier and Cherish. Mexoana and Abound will be trained by Al Weston at Jacksonville.

William Henry, a leading steeplechase rider a couple of seasons back, will train a stable of cross-country horses for Richard Mortimer, Jr., next season.

Con Leighton is wintering three fine yearlings for Mr. Earle at his old stable at Gravesend. The Hermis—Victoria M. colt is one of the best-looking yearlings seen about any of the tracks this fall.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

C. B. Clow declared before leaving California for Juarez that he would ship Clamor back to Oakland for the Waterhouse Cup, at two and a quarter miles. Early Wright is not superstitious like the ma-jority of race owners. Not long ago a photographer for a San Francisco dally was up against it for a picture of one of the horses that was to sport colors in the Opening Handicap. It was raining at the time, but Early Wright took compassion and had Arasee led out. And Arasee proved the winner.

GALA OPENING AT MONCRIEF

INAUGURATION OF JACKSONVILLE MEETING MARKED BY BRILLIANT GATHERING.

ald Macdonald Wins the Thanksgiving Handicap and Two of His Stablemates Are Among Other Winners of the Day.

Jacksonville, Fla., November 24.—Jacksonville's winter racing season opened this afternoon with a brilliant gathering at Monerief Park. The grandstand was gaily decorated with palms and bunting, and among the large gathering that turned out were many persons prominent in local business and political circles. The racing conditions could not well have been improved upon, the track being in excellent condition, while the weather was warm and pleasant. A program of six races was provided, with the Thanksgiving Handicap at one nile as the feature. S. A. Clopton furnished the winner in this race in the consistent Donald Macdonald, which led his filed most of the way and beat Friend Harry scant length after a long stretch drive.

The Clopton colors were decidedly conspicuous during the afternoon, three of the six winners coming from this stable. Mr. Clopton furnished the winner of the second race in Ida D, and of the lifth in Lady Irma. Both of these fillies made runaway affairs of their races. Ida D, had a big margin over her opposition at the finish, while Lady Irma was forced to a hard three ostall of determined opposition from Sen Bodbe. Jack Parker in the sixt, Jeck Denman in the third, Ben Double. In four of the control of the six winners of the late of the late is the second race furnished stirring contests with small margins separating the first two.

Donald Macdonald showed brilliant form in his race. Shouldering top weight of 124 pounds, he ran around his company with a rush on the turn into the backstretch and, after drawing away into an easy lead had enough left to stall off Friend Harry's stretch challenge.

The inaugural dash went to the greatly improved Hoffman, which scored his third straight victory in winning by a segant half length. This race was marked by a fast pace from the start, the first quarter being run in 23 and the half-mile in 47\frac{1}{2}. That the halter brigade will be busy here this winter was foreshadowed by the running up of the winner of the first selling race of the meeting. Ida

The advance of the price of admission to $2 had little effect on the attendance. The grown

Pritchard Candidate Takes Thanksgiving Handican at Oakland-Hooray Changes Hands.

San Francisco, Cal., November 24.—Although threatening weather prevailed in the morning and there were light showers in the afternoon, the largest crowd of the season was on hand to see the running of the Thanksgiving Handicap at Oakland today. The race was at a mile and an eighth, and a field of six went't to the post, with Bubbling Water ruling favorite. Richard Dwyer sent them away to a good start. Chester Krum assumed the lead under sufferance, with Bubbling Water in close attendance. Spellbound took the lead at the half-mile post, where Archibald was taking Bubbling Water to the outside to pass Chester Krum. At that stage of the race the favorite lost considerable ground, allowing Spellbound to draw away and secure a lead of over two lengths. Bubbling Water closed gamely but could not catch the son of Albert, and he won easily. Chester Krum was third. Although the course was not at its best the race was run in 1:515, only a second slower than the track record. Well-supported horses won most of the other races. In the first race Busy Man collided with Sona and fell, throwing Buxton. Later Sona threw Fogarty. Both boys escaped injury. Hooray, winner of the fifth race, was bid up from $400 to $700 by C. P. Lamar and became his property.

George Howson, one of the oldest living jockeys in America, was a recent visitor at the track. He is now well over the seventy-year mark and only visits the track occasionally. He is in business in Oakland. He is one of the few jockeys who have ridden in races when over 69 years of age.

Andy Blakeley is troubled with sickness in his stable. Pluvious, Summertime, Rinda and Cool Spring are all troubled with coughs and colds.

FORMER JOCKEY DIES IN CALIFORNIA.

Joe Narvaez, formerly a well-known jockey, died this week at Alameda, Cal. He had been a victim of tubercolosis for some time, but his death was somewhat unexpected. He was at the Oakland track only a few days ago before he succumbed. In the late eighties and early nineties Narvaez was one of the best known jockeys in the country. He rode for Thomas H. Williams when he had such horses as Rachne, Flirtation, Geraldine and Gibson. A r horse that he scored many triumphs with was the celebrated Dr. Hasbrouck, one of the fastest sprintter ers ever seen in this country. Narvaez was born in San Jose, Cal., about thirty-nine years ago and is survived by two brothers, who were also jockeys in their day.
